- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: JEREMY HAMMOND
CASE NUMBER: 1:S2 12CR185 (LAP)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
2. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
3. The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse program approved by the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse provider, as approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant may be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

The mandatory drug condition is suspended due to imposition of drug treatment special condition.

4. The defendant shall have no involvement with any hacking-related or electronic civil disobedience websites and organizations, and shall have no involvement or contact with any civil disobedience organizations.
5. The defendant shall participate in the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program administered by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office advance notification of any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected device(s) that will be used during the term of supervision and that can access the internet. The U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install any application as necessary to survey all activity on computer(s) or connected device(s) owned or operated by the defendant. The defendant may be required to pay the cost of monitoring services at the monthly rate provided by the U.S. Probation Office. The rate and payment schedule are subject to periodic adjustments by the U.S. Probation Office. The U.S. Probation Office shall be notified via electronic transmission of impermissible/suspicious activity or communications occurring on such computer or connected device, consistent with the computer monitoring policy in effect by the probation office. As triggered by impermissible/suspicious activity, the defendant shall consent to and cooperate with unannounced examinations of any computer equipment owned or used by the defendant. This examination shall include but is not limited to retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s), connected device(s), storage media, and any internal or external peripherals, and may involve removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection.
6. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search at any time with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation/supervised release or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions. This condition excludes computers owned by the defendant's employer.

7. The defendant shall not use any means to hide his identity online, including, for example, the Tor network or proxy servers.

8. The defendant shall not use any means to encrypt his communications online, except as required by employment.

9. The defendant shall not encrypt stored data, except as required by employment.

The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody.

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of residence.

Standard condition 6 is amended to: The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment, or if such notification is not possible, then within five days after such change.
